Best of memories in school,

N. Y. July 1, 1925

"If we do our best; if we do not magnify trifling troubles; if we work resolutely, I will not say at the bright side of things, but at things as they really are; if we realize more of the manifold blessings which surround us, we cannot but feel that life is indeed a glorious inheritance."

— Sir John Lubbock,

F. A. Derby.

And your chances kinder slim;
If the situations puzzlin'
And the prospects awful grim,
And perplexities keep passin'
Till all hope is nearly gone;
Just bristle up, and grit your teeth,
And keep on, keeping on.

Five things observe with care
Of whom you speak, to whom you speak
And how, and when, and where.
